

TIME AT THE FERRY.

Words by JETTY VOGEL.
Allegretto. mf

Music by LADY BENEDICT.

PIANO.

mf Old Time was a ro-ver the whole world o-ver, And once by his wan-der-ings
mf
rall. a tempo.
(ccl. Sve.)

led,..... Came where there did gleam a broad roll-ing stream—Fair mea-dows be-yond it out-spread,— And p rall.
p rall.

a tempo. there at their play at the fall of the day, Saw he ma-ny a lov-er and lass,..... Come, fer-ry me o'er, he cres.
a tempo. cres.

f cantabile, a little slower.

cried, to yon shore, And help to make old Time to pass..... Whom shall we send? said each lass to her friend, For

f cantabile.
a little slower.

cres molto. ff

Pleasure's too frail, and Du - ty too slow; Love's boat is the fleet-est, his trim the com-plet-est; Yes, Love is the boy to the

cres molto. ff sf sf

dim. con espress.

fer-ry to go. Oh! lin-ger a-while tho' the sun-shine may smile, Cried the voice of a mat-ron, a-las and a-las! Re-

dim.

rall. p

- mem - ber, my daugh-ters, the wrecks on the wa - ters, By Love who have striv - en to make Time to pass. Young rall.

tempo 1mo. cres.

Love un-dis-may'd to the wan-der-er made, And took him a-board in his boat;..... How bright flash'd his oar, as he tempo 1 no. cres.

rall. a tempo.

launch'd from the shore, And was soon in the ra-pids a - float ; Then cried he tri-umph-ant, in ac - cents ex - ult - ant, Oh !

cres. f

list to my sing - ing, fair lad and fair lass, For all the world o - ver, since Time was a rov - er, 'Tis

cres.

rall. ff

Love, kind-ly Love, makes Time ev - er to pass.....

f rall. ff

