

THE VALLEY'S QUEEN.

Words by F. B. DOVETON.

Music by ELIZABETH PHILP.

PIANO. Moderato.

1. There are flowers ga - lore in a dell I know That
 2. The speed - well, blue as the sky a - bove, And the look - eth to - wards the West,..... But of all the fair sweet wild rose are there ;..... But they charm me flowers that in it blow, I love the pale Li - ly not like my dain - ty love That scent - eth the sum - mer

rall.
 best,..... I love the pale Li - ly best,..... The air !..... That scent - eth the sum - mer air !..... There are

rall.

tempo.
 vi - o - let peeps from its couch of green, And bon - ny it flow - ers ga - lore in that dream - y dale, And beau - ti - ful

tempo.

cres - - - - - cen

is to see,..... But the stain - less bells of the all are they,..... But I lost my heart to the

do.

val - ley's Queen Are fair - er by far to me !..... The Li - ly pale In the mer - ry month of May !..... I

do.

stain - less bells of the val - ley's Queen Are fair - er by lost my heart to the Li - ly pale n the mer - ry

rall.

far month to of me !.....
May !.....

rall. rall.