POSTAGE OF THE ILLUSTRATED LONDON NEWS.

CONSISTING OF NUMBER AND HALF-SHEET SUPPLEMENT.

(May be taken as a guide for most Newspapers.)

Copies bearing the impressed stamp (which must be exposed to view) circulate pure through the Post Office for fifteen days from the date of publication to all parts of the United Kingdom and the Channel Islands; unless addressed to persons living within three miles of the place where they are noted, when they become liable to a postage of one penny each, which must be prepaid by affixing a postage-stamp.

Unstamped copies should have two penny postage-stamps affixed to each.

FOR FOREIGN PARTS.

The Impressed stamp is of no service for copies which are to be sent abroad; these must have postage-stamps affixed to them according to the following rates:—

The letter (a) denotes that an additional charge is made on delivery.

An edition is printed on thin paper for foreign postage.

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN MAILS.

Australia.—Mails to these colonies are dispatched every fourth Friday via Marseilles, and every fourth Saturday via Southampton.

Cape of Good Hope.—Mails are forwarded to the Cape of Good Hope by direct packet on the 25th of each month, as well as on the 10th.

Geylon.—Mails to Ceylon are now dispatched every alternate Friday via Marseilles, and every alternate Saturday via Southampton.

China and Japan.—Mails for China and Japan are now dispatched every alternate Friday via Marseilles, and every alternate Saturday via Southampton.

Southampton.

Honduras.—The postage of all letters addressed to Honduras is 1s. per half ounce.

India.—Mails to India are now dispatched every Friday via Marseilles, and every Saturday morning via Southampton. The postage of letters to India and Ceylon per half ounce is 9d. when sent via Southampton, and 1s. 1d. when sent via Marseilles. The scale advances by half ounces instead of by ounces. Malta.—The packets between Marseilles and Alexandria have ceased to call at Malta, and mails are consequently no longer sent to Malta via Marseilles; but in lieu thereof a nuali is dispatched to Malta every Tuesday via Messina. The mail via Southampton is now dispatched every Saturday. Mauritius.—The English contract for the conveyance of mails to and from Mauritius via Galle has terminated, and mails to and from Mauritius via Galle has terminated, and mails to and from Mauritius via Golle has terminated, and mails to and from Mauritius via Golle has terminated, and mails to and from Mauritius resent only by French packet. No correspondence for the Cape of Good Hope is now sent by this route.

THE ILLUSTRATED LONDON ALMANACK FOR 1870.

United States of America.—Letters, 12 cents per single rate of 15 grammes (one half-ounce) in the United States, and 6d. (12 cents) in the United Kingdom; prepayment optional. A fine of 5 cents in the United States, and 2d. (4 cents) in the United Kingdom, will, however, be levied and collected in addition to the deficient postage on each unpaid, or insufficiently prepaid, letter received by one country from the other. Newspapers, 2 cents each in the United States, and 1d. each in the United Kingdom, if not exceeding 4 oz. in weight. Book-packets, including printed papers of all kinds, &c., and patterns and samples of merchandise, including seeds and grain, when not exceeding 1 oz. in weight, 2 cents in the United States, and 1d. in the United Kingdom.

LIFE INSURANCE AT POST OFFICES.

The Postmaster-General is empowered, under the Act 27 and 28 Vict., c. 43, to insure the lives of persons of either sex, between the ages of sixteen and sixty, for not less than £20 or more than £100. He is also empowered, under the same Act, to grant immediate or deferred annuities of not more than £50 on the lives of persons of either sex, and of the age of ten years and unwards.

and upwards.

Certain post offices (the names of which may be obtained at any post office) have been opened for the receipt of proposals for insurance of lives and the purchase of annutries; and forms of proposal, with full instructions for filling up and delivering these forms, may be obtained at these post offices.

MONEY ORDER OFFICE.

Parties having occasion to transmit small sums may do so through the Post Office, with entire safety.

CHARGE FOR MONEY ORDERS:—For sums not exceeding £2, 3d.; not exceeding £5, 6d.; not exceeding £7, 9d.; not exceeding £10, 1s.

In granting money orders, and in advising of the same, one Christian name in full for either the Payee or the Remitter will be sufficient, instead of all the Christian names being furnished in full, as formerly required.
