

Toasts and Sentiments.

AMATORY.

AMERICAN belles and American fashions.
 Laughing lovers to merry maids.
 Love and opportunity.
 Love's slavery.
 Love without licentiousness, and pleasure without excess.
 Love, liberty, and length of blissful days.
 Love without fear, and life without care.
 Love for one.
 Life, love, liberty, and true friendship.
 Love in every breast, liberty in every heart, and learning in every head.
 Love at liberty, and liberty in love.
 Love: may it never make a wise man play the fool.
 Artless love, and disinterested friendship.
 All that love can give, and sensibility enjoy.
 A speedy union to every lad and lass.
 Beauty's best companion—Modesty.
 Beauty, innocence, and modest merit.
 Beauty without affectation, and virtue without deceit.
 Community of goods, unity of hearts, nobility of sentiment, and truth of feeling to the lovers of the fair sex.
 Charms to strike the sight, and merit to win the heart.
 Constancy in love, and sincerity in friendship.
 Here's a health to the maid that is constant and kind,
 Who to charms bright as Venus' adds Diana's mind.
 I'll toast America's daughters—let all fill their glasses—
 Whose beauty and virtue the whole world's surpasses
 May blessings attend them, go wherever they will,
 And foul fall the man that e'er offers them ill.
 Love without deceit and matrimony without regret.
 Love's garlands: may they ever entwine the brows of every true-hearted lover.
 Lovely woman—man's best and dearest gift of life.
 Love to one, friendship to a few, and good-will to all.
 Long life, pure love, and boundless liberty.
 May love and reason be friends, and beauty and prudence marry.
 May the lovers of the fair sex never want the means to defend them.
 May the sparks of love brighten into a flame.
 May the joys of the fair give pleasure to the heart.
 May we be loved by those whom we love.
 May we kiss whom we please, and please whom we kiss.
 May the bud of affection be ripened by the sunshine of sincerity.
 May a virtuous offspring succeed to mutual and honorable love.
 May the presence of the fair curb the licentious.
 May the confidence of love be rewarded with constancy in its object.
 May the honorable lover attain the object of his wishes.

 May the wings of love never lose a feather.
 May the blush of conscious innocence ever deck the faces of the American fair.
 May the union of persons always be founded on that of hearts.
 May the generous heart ever meet a chaste mate.
 May the temper of our wives be suited to those of their husbands.
 May true passion never meet with a slight.

May every woman have a protector, but not a tyrant.
 THE GIRL WE LOVE—When she is our toast, we don't want any but her.
 May we find our wives to-night where Cain found his—in the land of Nod.
 HARMONY IN ALL THE STATES OF THE WORLD—Especially the Married State.
 THE GRACES THAT EVERY MAN DESIRES—The good graces of woman.
 THE BEST UNION BONDS IN THE MARKET—Marriage certificates.

BACCHANALIAN.

May we act with reason when the bottle circulates.
 May good fortune resemble the bottle and bowl,
 And stand by the man who can't stand by himself.
 May we never want wine, nor a friend to partake of it.
 May our love of the glass never make us forget decency.
 May the juice of the grape enliven each soul,
 And good-humor preside at the head of each bowl.
 May mirth exalt the feast.
 May we always get mellow with good wine.
 May the moments of mirth be regulated by the dial of reason.
 Champagne to our real friends, and real pain to our sham friends.
 Come, every man now give his toast—
 Fill up the glass—I'll tell you mine:
 Wine is the mistress I love most!
 This is my toast—now give me thine.
 Cheerfulness in our cups, content in our minds, and competency in our pockets.
 Come, fill the glass and drain the bowl:
 May Love and Bacchus still agree;
 And every American warm his soul
 With Cupid, Wine, and Liberty.
 Good-humor: and may it ever smile at our board.
 Full bags, a fresh bottle, and a beauty.
 Good wine and good company to the lovers of reasonable enjoyment.
 A friend and a bottle to give him.
 A hearty supper, a good bottle, and a soft bed to every man who fights the battles of his country.
 A full purse, a fresh bottle, and beautiful face.
 A full bottle and a friend to partake of it.
 A drop of good stuff and a snug social party,
 To spend a dull evening, gay, social, and hearty.
 A mirth-inspiring bowl.
 A full belly, a heavy purse, and a light heart.
 A bottle at night and business in the morning.
 Beauty, wit, and wine.
 Clean glasses and old corks.
 Wine: may it be our spur as we ride over the bad roads of life.
 While we enjoy ourselves over the bottle, may we never drive prudence out of the room.
 Wine—for there's no medicine like it.
 Wine—the parent of friendship, composer of strife,
 The soother of sorrow, the blessing of life.
 Wine, the bond that cements the warm heart to a friend.
 WINE, WIT, AND WISDOM—Wine enough to sharpen wit; wit enough to give zest to wine; wisdom enough to "shut down" at the right moment.

THE LATCH KEY—May it never open the door to reproach. May we never lose our taste for any of the sweets of life—especially lasses.

THE FIRST DUTY OF BACHELORS—To ring the city belles. Success to all parties that, like this party, are founded on friendship, harmony, and hospitality.

THE BEST OF ALL REVOLVERS—The bottle as it goes round.

COMIC.

May the tax-gatherer be forgiven in another world.
