

Sunset.

Words by J. R. EASTWOOD.

Music by EDMUND H. TURPIN.

VOICE. p

1. In grass-grown, sheltered ways and green, Where gleams of glo - ry
 2. The dy - ing day will lin - ger still, With sil - ver stars, for

PIANO. Andante affetuoso. p p cres. dim

glance be-tween The rust - ling leaves that shroud the lane, I walk and talk with love of Lil; The breeze will mur - mur and com - plain Through all the dark, de - cres. dim.

Lil a - gain. I hold my love by sert - ed lane. And looks of love in p

cres. dim.

both her hands; The sun that lights a thou - sand lands Will lift - ed eyes, As now, to - night, will then a - rise, With cres. f

cres. f

rise for me, will rise a - gain, Will search for Lil and hap - - - py thoughts, with thoughts of pain, With Lil no lon - ger

dim. pp

p dim. pp

search in vain, Will search for Lil and search in vain.
in the lane, With Lil for no lon - ger in the lane.

rall. p pp rall.

rall. p colla voce. dim. pp rall. PED. *

