

Love's Folly.

Words by G. WEATHERLY.

Music by JOHN W. HINTON, Mus. D.

VOICE.

1. O, lit-tle Love, do what you will, I can - not help but love you still; For who can pon - der
 2. For asthe flow'rets love the sun, So do I love thee, dar - ling one; Like them, when sunshine and be wise, Be - neath the sun-light of thine eyes? And when thy ripe lips smile on me, My fades from sight, I watch but for re - turn - ing light. Ah! lit-tle one, you know full well, You cres. ritenuto.

PIANO.

ev - 'ry thought is ec - sta - sy, And when you frown in proud dis - dain, I wait for you to smile a - cast o'er me a ma - gic spell, So smile or frown, do what you will, I can - not help but love you

tempo.

- gain,..... to smile a - gain.....
 still,..... but love you still.....

tempo. cres.

O, lit - tle Love, do what you will, I can - not help but love you still ; For who can pon - der and be wise, Be -

Last time.

- neath the sun - light of thine eyes.

poco-a-poco dim. è rall.

