

Words by J. R. EASTWOOD.

Music by GORDON SAUNDERS.

VOICE.

PIANO.

rit.

1. The stars will light the vault of night, And we shall meet to se - - ver; For
 2. The sun will rise in hap - py skies, And in fa - mi - liar pla - - ces; Where colla voce.

love is dead, and faith has fled, For e - ver and for e - ver, For e - ver and e - - -
 first we met the sun will set, And miss remembered fa - ces, And miss re - membered fa -

- ver.
- ces.

O
But

loved and lost! with bit - ter cost, With all we prize and trea - sure, With sad surprise, with was it sweet to kiss and meet? For now we meet to se - ver, To kiss and part, with stream - ing eyes, We pay for fleeting plea - sure, With sad sur - prise, with stream - ing eyes, We pain of heart, For e - ver and for e - ver, To kiss and part, with pain of heart, For 1st time. 2nd time.

pay for fleet - ing plea - - - sure.
 e - ver and for e - - - - - ver.....
 rall.

Ped. Ped.