

THE MAIDEN'S SECRET

Words by E. C. COURTENAY.
Allegretto.

Music by J. T. FIELD, L. Mus. dim.

PIANO. mf riten.

mf p

1. Tell it not to the Wind, sweet maid, For he will whis-per it to - night A -
2. Tell it not to the Rose, sweet maid, For when she blush-es deep and red, Or

p

cres. dim. mf

- mong the pine trees on the height, Or where the drea - ry rush - es grow, He'll gent - ly droops her consci-ous head To hide the dew-drop in her eye, She

cres. dim. mf

rall.

tell thy se - cret soft and low, He'll tell thy se - cret soft and low.
will be - tray thee, maid - en shy, She will be - tray thee, maid - en shy.

rall.

3. Tell it on - ly to me, sweet maid, For by the blush thou

mf

PED. * PED. * PED. * PED. * PED. *

canst not hide, When - e'er I lin - ger at thy side, I

dim. mf

dim. p

PED. * PED. * PED. * PED. * PED. * PED. *

feel it— but 'tis sweet - est said;—Then whis - per low, "I

mf

PED. * PED. * PED. * PED. *

love," sweet maid, Then whis - per low, "I love," sweet maid.

molto rall.

molto rall.