

Words by J. F. WALLER, LL.D.
Maestoso. S

“Courage, Brothers!”

Music by
HUMPHREY J. STARK, Mus.B.

VOICE.

PIANO.

f

S

1. Cou- rage, brothers! there is no-thing
2. Cou- rage, brothers! there is no-thing
3. Cou- rage, brothers! there is no-thing

In the world brave men should fear ; If the heart be firm and stea - dy, If the arm be
In the world true men ap - pals ; Still be true to man and wo - man, To the God of Brave and true men should af - fright ; Life's a war - fare high and ho - ly, For the lof - ty strong and rea - dy, Half our dan - gers dis - ap - pear. On - ly cow - ards faint and truth a true man, True to self when du - ty calls. He that's false in word or and the low - ly ; God and an - gels watch the fight ; In the roar, and rush, and

sf p

fal - ter,                    On - ly cra - vens shrink and    pal - ter,                    On - ly das - tards do - ing                    Soul and bo - dy brings to    ru - in;                    Ly - ing's stil! a rat - tle,                    In the sweat and blood of    bat - tle,                    Fight as men for

are                    dis - mayed.                    Meet each trial—ne - ver fly..... it,                    Face misfortune, and de - los - . . . . . ing                    Do the truth and fear no                    e - . . . vil,                    Speak the truth and shame the fight                    ar - rayed.                    Whether vanquished or vic - to - - rious,                    Good men's lives and deaths are

- fy..... it; }                    Courage, brothers!— who's a - fraid?                    Courage, brothers!— who's a - fraid?
de - vil; }
glo - rious; }

accel.

cres                    cen                    do.

ad lib                    1st and 2nd times. S | 3rd time.

who's a - fraid? who's a - fraid?                    -fraid?

ff                    colla voce.

PED.                    *