

Words by
J. T. BURTON WOLLASTON.

DAY-BREAK.

Music by
FREDERICK G. COLE.

VOICE. Allegretto.

PIANO. mf p stacc.

1. A boat sailed out on the
2. The wind a-rose, and the ebb - ing tide, To toil all night for fish in the sea; The sails were set as she sea was wild, And the an - gry waves o - beyed the gale; The fish - er - man thought, as he float - ed free, And tossed the foam - ing waves a - side; And the fish - er - man said, as he furl - ed the sail, Of a cot - tage home, of wife and child; And he said, as he toiled, "O rall. tempo. colla vocc. tempo.

sailed a - way, "I come not back till the break of day," God, I pray Thou wilt keep me safe till the break of day."

più lento, quasi recit.

3. The morn - ing sun broke o - ver the sea, But

rall.

più lento, colla voce.

ne - ver a boat on its bo - som lay, And all but one were in the

accel. agitato.

accel.

bay; Oh! where could the boat and the fish - er be? The fish - er - man's soul had tempo, con espress.

pp

rall.

lento.

pp

rall.

lento. p

sailed a - way As the dawn was break - ing of End - - less Day.

f

ff rall.

ff colla voce.

rall.

pp