

The Primrose Way.

Words by GEORGE WEATHERLY.
Moderato.

Music by CHARLES BASSETT.

PIANO.

mf

1. 'Tis a las-sie and a lad,..... Walk-ing by the Prim-rose Way,
2. 'Tis an old man and his wife,..... Walk-ing by the Prim-rose Way,

p

And the hearts of both are sad : He and she must part to - day !
And there's spring-time in their life,..... Though their scan-ty locks are grey !

mf cres. cres. f

He will go a - mid the throng, Rich - es and a name to gain ;
He has wan-dered far and long, Seek - ing wealth and fame in vain ;

p She but sings an old-time song,..... Hear - ing truth in its re - frain :
 But they sing an old-time song,..... With a sweet and glad re - frain :

cres. rall.

p cres. rall.

Tempo di valse.
mf

"Love is best! Love is best! Love can last - ing joys im - part! 'Love is best,
 "Love is best! Love is best! Love en - dur - ing joy im - parts! 'Love is best,

Tempo di valse.
mf

p

Love is best,' Is the e - cho of my heart! 'Love is best,'..... is the Love is best,' Is the e - cho of our hearts! 'Love is best,'..... is the

p

e - cho, the e - cho of my heart!"
 e - cho, the e - cho of our hearts!"

p p

