

There's Sunshine in December.

Words by HARALD HARTLEY.

Music by CHARLES WILLIAM PEARCE,
Mus.D., Cantab., L.Mus., T.C.L.

VOICE. CONTRALTO.

1. In win - ter, when the skies are sad, And
2. When sor - row and cold trou-ble come To
3. Sink not, oh heart, look glad-ly forth ! Look

Andante con dolore.

PIANO. p Ped. *

sun - shine bright o'er - cloud - - ed, And all the blue of sun - ny chill thy joy with weep - - ing, And all thy life seems lone and on - ward past thy sor - - row ; Though clouds to - day en - shroud the rall. e dim. pp a tempo.

days With cold grey mists en - shroud - ed ; When all the world seems hard and sad, Un - blessed, nor worth the keep - ing— Look up and on - ward thro' the sky The sun will shine to - mor - row : Then bear thy sor - rows with calm colla voce. pp a tempo.

Maggiore con affetto. cres chill,..... Then sun - ny days re - mem - ber ; For though the skies be mists,..... And hap - py days re - mem - ber ; The sad, low clouds will joy,..... And in thy heart re - mem - ber, The fu - ture still shall cres. cres

cen do. f

oft o'er-cast, For though the skies be oft o'er-cast, There's sunshine in De - cem - ber ! For clear a - way, The sad, low clouds will clear a - way, There's sunshine in De - cem - ber ! The make thee glad, The fu - ture still shall make thee glad Like sunshine in De - cem - ber ! The

cen do. f

dim. rall. Last verse only.

though the skies be oft o'er-cast, There's sun-shine in De - cem - ber !
 sad, low clouds will clear a - way, There's sun-shine in De - cem - ber !
 fu - ture still shall make thee glad Like sun-shine in De - - - - - cem - ber !

colla voce.