

ANOTHER YEAR.

New Year's Song.

WRITTEN AND COMPOSED FOR THE PIANO FORTE,

BY J. STARR HOLLOWAY.

[Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1864, by J. STARR HOLLOWAY, in the Clerk's office of the District Court of the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.]

Op. 144.

PIANO.

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand is in treble clef with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#) and a 4/4 time signature. It begins with a series of eighth notes, followed by a half note, and then a series of quarter notes. The left hand is in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature, playing a simple accompaniment of quarter notes. A dynamic marking of p (piano) is placed below the first measure of the right hand.

An - other year! an - other year! Time stays not in his bus - y flight; How quick the An - other year! an - other year! Dear Ma - ry, we will not for - get, That we may

The piano accompaniment for the first verse consists of two staves. The right hand is in treble clef with a key signature of two sharps and a 4/4 time signature, playing a series of quarter notes. The left hand is in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature, playing a series of quarter notes.

roll - ing tides ap - pear, How swift they van - ish from our sight; But if a - walk without a fear The path that opes be - yond us yet: There are no

The piano accompaniment for the second verse consists of two staves. The right hand is in treble clef with a key signature of two sharps and a 4/4 time signature, playing a series of quarter notes. The left hand is in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature, playing a series of quarter notes.

ANOTHER YEAR.

rit. a tempo.

mid joys, this va-ried scene The dear old year shall come no more, What-ev-er how-ev-er dear, That we have known in the dead past, But still may joys or hopes have been, The New Year hath the same in store, What-ev-er cheer this glad New Year, In which kind heav'n our lot has cast, But still may joys or hopes have been, The New Year hath the same in store.

 cheer the glad New Year, In which kind heav'n our lot has cast.