

My Little Garden.

Words and Music by CHARLES BASSETT.

Met. $\text{♩} = 72$. Brightly. mf

VOICE.

1. I have a lit-tle gar-den, all bright and gay with
 2. I love my lit-tle gar-den—I ne-ver shall for-
 3. When I'm big I'll have a gar-den all full of sweet-est

PIANO. mf

flowers, And I love that lit-tle gar-den, with its cool and sha-dy bowers. I get Its ma-ri-golds and wall-flowers, its fra-grant mign-on-ette, Its flowers, To make me glad and hap-py all through the sum-mer hours; Then to can-not boast of rich-es, but I'm more than rich in health, And hap-py and conpret-ty pinks and heart's-case, its for-get-me-nots, sweet peas, Snap-dra-gons, and sweet cheer me in the win-ter would be thoughts of com-ing spring, When buds burst forth in cres.

tent-ed—so what need I of wealth? Oh! I love the lit-tle dai-sy that wil-liams, and o-thers dear as these. Oh! I love the ear-ly snow-drop, the beau-ty, and birds so sweet-ly sing: For I love my lit-tle gar-den, with its mf

My Little Garden.

227

nes - ties at my feet, I love the pret - ty prim - rose and vi - o - let so cro - cus drest in gold, The hy - a - cinths and tu - lips that such va - ried charms un - cool and sha - dy bowers, I love my lit - tle gar - den, all bright and gay with sweet, I love the snow - white li - ly, the lark - spurs short and

 - fold, The jas - mine and cle - ma - tis, that climb the i - vied flowers; No bloom but has its beau - ty - to love, none are too tall, And their queen, the rose so love - ly— Sweet flowers, I love them all! wall, And their queen, the rose so love - ly— Sweet flowers, I love them all!

 small, From the rose - queen to the dai - sy— Sweet flowers, I love them all!

